

PRICE ONE CENT. NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 5, 1890.

EXTRA 10.30 O'CLOCK. DEMOCRACY

Gloriously Triumphant from Coast to Coast. A Sweeping Majority in the House of Representatives. McKinley Goes Down With the General Republican Wreck.

Pennsylvania Lost to Delamater and Matt Quay. Massachusetts Carries Russell Grandly to the Top.

It was a great Election Day for the Democracy everywhere. The triumph of Democratic hosts extended clear across the country; for though Maine stood fast with its four Republican Congressmen, there was a shake-up next door in New Hampshire, and the shaking-up extended into California. The complete reversal of the majority in the House of Representatives became apparent with the first returns from the States last night. It grew, after that, constantly more and more evident. The Fifty-first Congress, after being fixed up through the Republican handling of contested election cases in the South, stood 175 to 151 against the Democrats. The Fifty-second Congress, according to the latest figures of this morning, will have a Democratic majority of from 63 to 77 members. The McKinley bill has got in its work with a vengeance. Up to midnight, McKinley himself appeared to have survived the general disaster which his measure had wrought upon his party, but later returns, that morning, indicate the probability that he, too, is lost in the flood. Indeed, a despatch from Massillon, at 5:10 this morning, announced that Warwick had beaten the Tariff stink-bomb by 400 to 700 plurality. The earlier night returns seemed to forebode Cannon's defeat in Illinois; but later it appeared that for reasons which need not appear in this column, his constituents had seen fit to return him and his foul mouth to Washington. The fate of Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, the author of the infamous Force bill, hanging in the balance for some hours, and when his election was finally assured it was only by a majority of about 1,000, a pronounced drop from the 5,294 majority which secured his previous election. As to the upper House of Congress, the United States Senate, changes in the State Legislatures of Illinois and New Hampshire make sure the choice of Democrats in place of Senators Farwell and Blair, while like fortune is possible in two other cases. And the Governors! Pattison, in Pennsylvania, beats Quay's Republicans, Delamater. Russell, in Massachusetts, runs gloriously away from Republican Brackett. Ammen, in New Hampshire, triumphs over Republican Tuttle. Morris, in Connecticut, seems probably elected over Merwin, Republican.

MATT QUAY'S MAN LOSES.

Pattison Governor-Elect of Pennsylvania by 10,000 Plurality.

no Republican who caught the message felt his hope survive. Subsequent returns have all tended to confirm Mr. Quay in his thought. Pattison is elected Governor by a majority not yet definitely set in figures, but reaching at least 10,000. A despatch from Erie says that county, ordinarily Republican, has gone for Pattison by a close vote, while the result for Congress is doubtful, with chances in favor of Tilden, Democrat.

AND DOWN GOES MCKINLEY.

Warwick Beats Him by from 400 to 700 Majority. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) MASSILLON, O., Nov. 5.—From returns received up to this hour (3:10 A. M.), it can be confidently stated that McKinley is defeated for Congress, Warwick being elected by from 400 to 700 majority. MASSILLON, O., Nov. 5.—3:30 A. M.—McKinley's defeat now seems certain. Net estimated Democratic plurality in his district, 284, 4:10 A. M.—Holmes County gives Warwick 1,900; Wayne, 400. Stark County gives McKinley 500; Medina County gives him 1,500. McKinley's defeat conceded.

NEW YORK'S ASSEMBLY.

Democrats Take It by a Majority of Eight or Ten. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ALBANY, Nov. 5.—The next Assembly will be Democratic, the Republican majority having been reversed by yesterday's wonderful wave of Democracy. The body will probably stand 69 to 59, though the Argus claimed this morning but 65 to 60.

CONNECTICUT ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 5.—One hundred and sixty-seven towns out of 168 give Morris (Dem.) an apparent majority for Governor of 8,550. Congressional delegation, 5 Democrats, 1 Republican.

WEST VIRGINIA ALL RIGHT.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 5.—At least three Democratic Congressmen have been elected in the State, including Pendleton, unseated by the Republicans of the present House. The State Legislature is Democratic.

THE GRANITE STATE DEMOCRATIC.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—The election of Governor seems likely to go to the Legislature, in which case Amaden (Dem.) will be chosen. Democrats appear to have the General Court by 135 to 159, with 22 to bear from.

THE BAY STATE VICTORY.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Russell's plurality for Governor will reach 6,000 at least—a Democratic gain of over 16,000.

THE GAIN IN KENTUCKY.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—The election of E. J. Howard, Democrat, for Congress, over John H. Wilson, Republican, seems assured. It is a Democratic gain of one Congressman, and a surprise, as Wilson was supposed to have a majority to count on from the start.

DEMOCRATIC DELAWARE.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.—While the returns continue slow and no definite estimate can be given, there is little doubt that Delaware has again elected a Democratic Governor, and that the party has gained in the State Legislature.

MISSOURI'S DEMOCRATIC DELEGATION.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 5.—The Democrats elected eleven Congressmen certainly in Missouri, and probably a solid delegation of twelve. It was a heavy vote, and the Australian system worked well.

TILLMAN'S MAJORITY 25,000.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 5.—Tillman's majority for Governor is conservatively placed at 25,000. Miller, colored, Rep., probably beats Elliott, white, Dem., for Congress in the Seventh District on a close vote.

REPUBLICAN LOSS IN LOUISIANA.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 5.—The Republicans have lost their one Congressman in Louisiana, and the Democrats have a solid delegation of six.

VIRGINIA'S SOLID DEMOCRATS.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—Virginia's ten Democratic Congressmen are elected by majorities varying up to 1,500. Langston, seated by the last Republican House, is defeated by Koss in the Fourth District.

Despite President Ben's Vote. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 5.—The State of Indiana goes Democratic by about 7,000, with the State Legislature and at least four Congressmen on the right side.

Iowa's Majority Raised. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 5.—Iowa's full vote was not polled, but the Democratic majority on the State ticket is well over 60,000. Six Democratic Congressmen are probably chosen.

Hope in a New State. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 5.—The majority of Wilson, Rep., for Congress, will be greatly reduced if not lost. Carroll, Dem., makes a sweep.

Congressmen Gained in Nebraska. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—Nebraska is keeping up its reputation for slow returns, but Boyd, Dem., has probably 5,000 to 10,000 majority over Governor. The Second Congressional District will have a Democratic representative in place of a Republican.

BROOKLYN ALL THERE, TOO

Great Democratic Gains Throughout the City of Churches. Courtney Elected Sheriff by 19,287—Wallace Barely Returned to Congress.

Complete returns this morning show great Democratic gains in Brooklyn. John Courtney, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, is elected by a plurality of 19,287. Theodore F. Jackson (Dem.) is elected City Comptroller by not less than 18,670 plurality. The total vote cast for Jackson was 65,710. Dunwell (Rep.) received about 45,000 votes.

Anton Weber, Democratic nominee for the City Auditorship, has a majority over Costello, the Republican candidate, of 15,700. The Democrats gained an Assemblyman, and cut down the Republican majority, of former years, in the Third Congressional District.

The Democratic Assemblymen elected are: J. J. Cahill, R. J. McBride, John Cooney, J. J. O'Connor, John Kelly, William Shields. Adam Schaaf, J. F. Quigley, T. F. Byrne and M. C. Earl.

The only Republican Assemblymen elected are John Kiesel and Joseph Aspinwall. John McMahon, Dem., and Charles A. Conrady, Rep., were elected Associate Justices of Sessions. Of the thirteen Supervisors elected eleven are Democrats.

NEW JERSEY RIGHT IN LINE.

The Democrats on the Tidal Wave and Make a Clean Sweep. New Jersey was right in the path of the tidal wave, and was swept clean.

It is a great Democratic victory, and the Applejack State stands in line with the victorious majority. The Democrats will have a working majority in both Houses and a long lead in the race for the United States Senate.

They have elected thirty-seven of the sixty members of the Assembly, and twelve of the twenty-one Senators. The Congressional delegation stands five Democrats and two Republicans.

To the Senate Camden County sends Maurice A. Rogers, Rep.; Essex County sends M. T. Harrett, Dem.; Gloucester County, Joseph R. Roe, Rep.; Monmouth County, T. S. K. Brown, Dem.; Salem County, H. T. Starr, Rep.; Somerset County, W. J. Keys, Dem.; Union County, Frederick Marsh, Dem.; Warren County, Johnson Cornish, Dem.

PRESIDENT HARRISON VOTES.

Coached by Mr. McKee in the Australian Ballot Method. INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—President Harrison and Attorney-General Miller reached this city from Washington at 10 o'clock this morning and were met at the station by members of the McKee family, including the President's daughter and "Baby" McKee. When the President entered the station the child ran to greet him and was caught affectionately in the President's arms and given a hearty kiss. After greeting the other members of the party he was driven directly to the McKee residence, where he spent an hour in conversation.

The provisions of the new election law were entirely new to President Harrison, and Mr. McKee produced a sample ballot and explained the manner of voting, how to stand and how to vote a straight ticket. The President reached the polling-place in his old ward at 11:30, and was met by a number of his neighbors and friends who had learned of his arrival. The entrance to the club had been hastily decorated with the Stars and Stripes, and the Chief Justice bowed his head as he passed under the entrance of National Independence. After exchanging salutations with those present he entered the polling-room, and the inspector handed him a ticket, asking as he did so: "What is the name?"

"Benjamin Harrison," answered the President. "It's plain Ben Harrison here," jocularly remarked Judge Landrum. "Yes, sir," said the President, "and his vote counts but one."

He then stepped into the booth nearest the window and stamped his ballot and a moment later returned it and the stamp to the inspector, leaving the room in just three minutes after entering. The President's ballot was the one hundred and fifty-second at the precinct and was immediately followed by that of a Democrat, who remarked that he would proceed to do the President's bidding. After voting the President returned to the residence of Mr. McKee and left for Washington this afternoon.

THE EVENING WORLD gave the first news last night of the result of the Election. It was on the street with Grant's majority 21 minutes before any other paper.

MRS. HARRIET CRAVER DEAD.

She Had Been a Public School Teacher for Thirty Years. The people of Primary School No. 3 were saddened this morning by the announcement of the death of Mrs. Harriet Craver, which occurred last evening at the Madison Park Hotel, 26 East Twenty-third street. She was about sixty years old. She had been a teacher in the New York public schools thirty years.

THE EVENING WORLD gave the first news last night of the result of the Election. It was on the street with Grant's majority 21 minutes before any other paper.

GORMAN AND GIEGERICH ALSO ELECTED BY HANDSOME MAJORITIES.

All the Returns Not in from the Annexed District, but It Looks Like Heintz.

The Total Vote 212,000—The Secret Ballot Proves a Success.

Democrats were very hoarse this morning, but, while their lungs were sore, their hearts were full of joy.

Tammany Democrats were especially sore-lunged and particularly joyous. All night long the sleep of citizens who were less enthusiastic in their joy was ever and anon disturbed by the peals of rejoicing Tammanyans.

"Hug! Hug! Hug!—J.—Grant!" yelled the rejoicing Democrats on every corner.

"Twenty-one thousand; that's enough! Give Grant Scott a pinch of snuff!"

"D—De Laney! Rah, rah, rah!" they roared.

DE LANEY NICOLLI. friends made home howl with a brass band, for he had won by a plurality of 116 over Philip Whiting, the Tammany candidate, and had beaten the "regular" Republican, Samuel Strausburger, by 1,190 votes.

New York elected eight Democratic Congressmen—all she had—in rebuke of the McKinley Tariff bill that gives a poor man the advice to wear one suit of clothes instead of two under its high price.

Theodore W. Myers, the honest, capable Comptroller of this big town, got 210,830 votes; his only opponent, William T. Wardell, the Protectionist, got 1,750 votes.

The race between Police Justice John J. Gorman and William H. Corsa, the Fusion candidate for Sheriff, was closer and more exciting, but Judge Gorman won by 2,506 majority.

Leonard A. Giegerich got there for County by will have a Democratic majority of eight votes.

The Republicans have only six to spare in the Senate, and that means that the Legislature is Democratic on joint ballot and that a Democratic United States Senator will be sent to Washington in place of William Maxwell Evans.

The Democrats have regained their control of the New York delegation in Congress, having elected 20 out of 34, a majority of 8. Eight of them are from New York City; Fellows, Dunphy, Tim Campbell, Cummings, Spicola, Warner, Flower and Fick.

James W. Covert comes from the Staten Island and Queens County District, and State-keeper is re-elected from the Westchester district. Boody, Clancy and Wagner come from Brooklyn and Republican Wallace got only 24 plurality in the Third District.

Moses B. Stivers, Republican, is succeeded by Henry Bacon, a Democrat, in the Fifteenth and in the Seventeenth District Isaac N. Cox, Democrat, takes the place of Knapp, a Republican.

James A. Sherman is retired in the Twenty-third District, and Democratic H. W. Bentley takes his place.

Even in the Rochester District No. 30, Charles K. Baker gives way to a Democrat, H. S. Greenleaf winning there.

Buffalo sends Editor D. N. Lockwood in place of John M. Farquhar in the Twenty-second, and T. L. Bunting (Dem.) in place of John M. Wiley (Rep.) in the Thirty-third District.

In the Congress that passed the McKinley Tariff and the Lodge Force bill New York was represented by 30 Republicans and 14 Democrats.

HEINTZ PROBABLY ELECTED.

Up to 9 A. M. this morning the returns from the annexed district indicate the election of Louis J. Heintz, the citizens' candidate.

The vote for thirty-two election districts in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards gives Heintz 2,144, Haffen 2,801.

Returns from eighteen districts are unaccountably missing, and at the Bureau of Elections this morning it was said that no additional figures were expected until this afternoon.

Every return should have been sent to Police Headquarters last night before the policemen assigned to the polling places were relieved from duty.

DISTRICT-ATTORNEY—COMPLETE.

the luxury tariff bill that gives a poor man the advice to wear one suit of clothes instead of two under its high prices.

Theodore W. Myers, the honest, capable comptroller of this big town, got 210,880 votes; his only opponent, William T. Wardell, the prohibitionist, got only 1,780 votes.

The race between Police Justice John J.
